LONG STORY SHORT PUBLISHING COMPANY

E-BOOK PUBLISHING

Long Story Short Publishing Company is a subsidiary of Long Story Short, Inc., the parent company of Long Story Short, an ezine for Writers, and Long Story Short School of Writing, writing sites dedicated to the Advancement of Writers. Due to popular demand, we are now publishing, marketing and selling your work in e-book format. Will we go to Publishing on Demand? We'll see. This is our first toe in the publishing waters, and we'd rather get this right first, and then see where we can take it from here.

We began producing e-Books at LSS Writing School so that you could take your courses in that format. Then some of our instructors had additional work they wanted to offer. Our repertoire currently includes writing courses, Fiction, non-fiction, historical fiction and children's books.

So, if you are interested in having LSS publish your work, or just market your already produced e-Books, we'd be delighted to hear from you. Right now, we're busy producing your work and stocking our e-bookstore with the many fine works you've sent us.
